'Shri Ratilal Chandaria Memorial Award Event'

In the loving memories of Shri Ratilal Chandaria, Gujarati Lexicon and Chandaria family has organized 'Shri Ratilal Chandaria Memorial Award' event on 13th January 2015, Tuesday at Gujarat Vishwa Kosh Trust, Usmanpura, Ahmedabad.

On Dussehra, October 13th 2013, Shri Ratilal Premchand Chandaria commenced his final journey exactly 91 years after he entered into the world. Shri Ratilal, known affectionately as Ratikaka or RPC, has been an inspirational figure. He was a renowned visionary leader, industrialist and philanthropist. In his later years, driven by his passion for his mother tongue, Gujarati, he founded and was the force behind GujaratiLexicon, Digital Bhagwadgomandal and several other digital Gujarati Language initiatives.

Ratikaka dedicated the last 25 years of his life in realizing his vision of using technology to continue the living tradition of the Gujarati language. His relentless passion and missionary zeal for language inspired many across the globe at various organizations. The launch of GujaratiLexicon on January 13, 2006 resulted in a mega language portal which has grown into the largest online portal for the Gujarati language with over 25 million visitors. This resource has revived an interest in the language and led to many further initiatives includes English – Gujarati Dictionary, Gujarati – English Dictionary, Gujarati – Gujarati Dictionary, Hindi - Gujarati Dictionary, Marathi - Gujarati Dictionary, Opposites, Idioms, Digital Proverbs, Phrases, Thesaurus, Sarth Kosh, Saras Spellchecker, Lok-Kosh (lokkosh.gujaratilexicon.com), Global Lexicon (global.gujaratilexicon.com), Swahili Lexicon (www.swahililexicon.com), Crossword, Quiz, GL Gems, Kids Games and GL Mobile Apps and a digitized online version of Gujarati's Encyclopedia, Bhagwadgomandal (www.bhagwadgomandal.com). This encyclopedia is archived in the US Congress Library and British Library Catalogue as a landmark Gujarati work. This has involved working with key partners including CDAC, GV, GSP and other organizations.

Shri Ratilal Chandaria led his life by example, first as a joint family man who used his understanding of people to build a global, successful and sustainable business and his sensitivity to his roots to share his life work with others.

As a special tribute to Ratikaka, Gujarati Lexicon announced two contests in October 2014.
